

Good Egg Nomination Form

Please type, or print clearly

The Good Egg Award is presented annually to a Petaluma citizen whose eggceptional effort over time has helped preserve, promote and contribute to the positive promotion of the city of Petaluma and its history.

The goal of The Good Egg award program is to encourage all citizens to become advocates of the unique qualities of Petaluma and to act as ambassadors for the value Petaluma's history has in our day to day lives. The Good Egg should be an eggceptional role model for this.

Berenika to Play Chopin

The Santa Rosa Symphony honors the 200th birthday of two classical masters by presenting Robert Schumann's Fourth Symphony and Frederic Chopin's Piano Concerto No. 2. In addition, music director Bruno Ferrandis leads the orchestra in a world premiere by award-winning contemporary composer Behzad Ranjbaran, who is currently on the faculty of The Juilliard School.

The Chopin concerto will be performed by Polish-born rising star pianist Berenika, making her Santa Rosa Symphony debut. Hailed in Warsaw as a "gentle genius... who plays like a woman possessed," Berenika won her first competition at age nine and has been a Leonard Bernstein Fellow at Tanglewood, winner of the Arthur W. Foote prize at Harvard, the John Knowles Paine Fellowship and the Canada Council for the Arts award.

Behzad Ranjbaran's world-premiere composition is titled "Mithra" and, according to the composer, was inspired by an ancient Persian mythology celebrated in pre-Islamic and Zoroastrian period (about 3000 years ago). Ferrandis noted, "Behzad is a modern composer but he writes in a style that is very neo-Romantic, very lyrical. He is a storyteller, who incorporates the ancient myths of Iran."

Concert times are Saturday, February 13, and Monday, February 15, at 8 PM and Sunday, February 14, at 3 PM at the Wells Fargo Center for the Arts, 50 Mark West Springs Road, in Santa Rosa.

For tickets, call 707.546.8742, purchase online at santarosasympphony.com, or at the door 90 minutes before each performance. Single tickets are $28-$55, with student and senior discounts available.
