

See A Movie In The Park

Petaluma's 4th Annual Movies in the Park, co-sponsored by the City of Petaluma, will kick off its 2006 season with "Daddy Day Care" on Saturday, July 15th.

Also scheduled are "Madagascar" on July 29th, "Mrs. Doubtfire" on August 12th, "Willy Wonka" on August 26th, "A League of Their Own" on September 9th, and "The Sound of Music" on September 23rd.

The movies are free, but cash donations of $4 for adults and $2 for children are welcomed. This summer's benefactors are the Petaluma Senior Center, Summer Camperships for Kids, and the Petaluma Parks Beautification Project. Movies in the Park features family-friendly films. Dinner items and desserts are available for purchase.

All movies begin at dusk, so bring warm clothes, blankets and low chairs and prepare for a good time. Glass bottles are not allowed.

Here Come Those Crazy Kitchen Kut-Ups

The Rohnert Park Kitchen Kut-Ups will perform their 34th annual razzle-dazzle musical revue July 15th, 18th, 20th, and 22nd at 1 PM at Spreckles Performing Arts Center. This year, the cast of energetic over-50 players will present hits from Broadway favorites such as "Oklahoma", "My Fair Lady", "South Pacific", "Sweet Charity", and "The Producers". The nostalgic, toe-tapping musical numbers are most often accompanied by comedy skits.

Still performing is the Kut-Ups founder, Betty Ferra. This year's show is directed by Bess Eiermann with musical direction by Larry Broderick. Call 707.588.3400 or visit sprecklesonline.com for reservations or information.

Music, Poetry, Dance and a Writers' Panel Mark Library's 30th Year

Join the Petaluma Regional Library in its celebration of 30 years serving the community from its fairgrounds location. A series of free events is scheduled under the collective title "Books, Bytes & Beyond".

On Tuesday, July 11th, at 6:30 PM, a gathering of area poets and musicians called "Words and Music" will feature the talents of Sonoma County Poet Laureate Geri DiGiorno, Sonoma County Library Poetry Slam co-creator Armando Garcia-Dávila, and award-winning San Francisco poet and musician Diane Frank, among others.

The Jubilee Klezmer Ensemble will appear in concert on Wednesday, July 12th, at 7 PM.

The summer reading club, Cotton Candy Express, will be held at 11 AM on Thursday the 13th.

On Friday the 14th at 3 PM, Ballet Folklorico Netzahualcoyotl will perform.

A Mystery Writers' Panel on Saturday, July 15th, at 2 PM, will include Steve Hockensmith, Michael Kurland, Bette and J. J. Lamb, Marcia Muller and Bill Pronzini.

Peter Welker's Jazz Quintet will close the celebration with a jazz concert in the children's area of the library at 3:30 PM on Saturday, July 15th.

The Petaluma Regional Library is at 100 Fairgrounds Drive. Call 707.763.9801, extension 5, for details.

Center Literary Café Hosts RoadWriters

A group of Sonoma County traveling poets who call themselves The RoadWriters will perform "Present At The Creation, An Evening of Poetry and Improvisation with Audience Participation" on Tuesday, July 11th, from 7 to 9PM at the Healdsburg Senior Center, 133 Matheson Street one block east of Healdsburg Plaza. The performance is free, although a $5 donation is suggested. Light refreshments will be served.

"Present at the Creation" is an anthology of poems about writing poetry by more than 30 area writers. The RoadWriters lift the veil on the creative process, bringing you into the fun, inspiration and risk of creating poems. As they involve the audience, they take suggestions and improve – performing the ultimate literary "high wire act".

The RoadWriters include poet, novelist and essayist Doug Stout, the first Literary Laureate of Healdsburg; poet and memoirist Vilma Ginsberg; writer and actress Jennifer Weil; author and literary entrepreneur Batja Cates; and poet, novelist and playwright David Beckman.
