

Petaluma Museum Hosts Klezmer Concert

On Friday, March 10th, at 7:30 PM, the Jubilee Klezmer Ensemble will perform at the Petaluma Historical Library & Museum, 20 Fourth Street in downtown Petaluma.

Klezmer is the joyous music of the shtetl, now experiencing a renaissance worldwide. Its roots can be traced back to the Middle Ages, and it combines far-flung musical styles from Poland, Ukraine, Germany, Greece, Turkey, Israel, the Balkans and Rumania, among others. The sound is both mellow and lively. The music is contagious, inspiring family and friends to jump onto the dance floor.

This evening of music is open to the public and admission is free. Of course, donations are always welcome. For more information, please call the Museum at 707.778.4398.

Popular Hometown Band To Play Sonoma Plaza

The Sonoma Hometown Band, directed by Richard Schneider, will present a concert featuring marches by John Philip Sousa on Saturday, March 18th, at 1 PM, at the Sebastiani Theatre on the Plaza, 476 First Street East in Sonoma. In addition to six Sousa marches, there will be selections from "Fiddler on the Roof", "The William Tell Overture", "Satin Doll", favorites by Henry Mancini, LeRoy Anderson, and other classical and popular hits. A "Patriotic Sing-A-Long" is included.

The event is free, although donations will be accepted. Call 707.933.8989 or 707.996.3413 for more information or visit sonomahometownband.org.

Peter Welker recording his 4th CD

Welker CD Release Calls For A Party

There will be a CD Release Party on Friday, March 10th, from 6 to 8 PM at Graziano's Ristorante in downtown Petaluma. Peter Welker's fourth CD, entitled "Duke, Billy and Tadd", was picked up by Tower Records' label and has released worldwide. It is available in all Tower Records stores, Borders Book stores and online at Tower Records.com, Amazon.com, and of course, Peter Welker.com.

The CD features performances by eight Grammy winners or nominees: Bill Watrous (who backed Frank Sinatra), Herb Pomeroy (who played with Charlie Parker), Steve Smith (Journey), Tony Levin (John Lennon), Pete Levin (Miles Davis), Fred Lipsius (Blood, Sweat & Tears), Ray Pizzi (Henry Mancini) and Mel Martin (Dizzy Gillespie). The CD was recorded following 700 hours of scoring by Welker. Engineering is by Jim Stern, a multi-Grammy winner whose credits include the soundtracks for "One Flew Over The Cuckoo's Nest", "Lord Of The Rings", and albums by Duke Ellington, Cannonball Adderley, Art Blakey, Bill Evans, Sonny Rollins, Van Morrison, and McCoy Tyner.

Call 707.762.5997 for reservations. Make them soon, because Graziano's jazz room only holds 200 people. Besides the jazz, you'll enjoy Graziano's food and drink. Graziano's is at 170 Petaluma Boulevard North in downtown Petaluma.
